Each person receives his custom blend under the form of a massage oil and a spray. As perfumer I conceive the blend as comfortable and enjoyable as possible. The mixtures are in agreement with recent EU directives and the international code of perfumers of IFRA (International Fragrance association).

For more than 15 years the University Hospitals of Geneva (Loëx, Beau-Séjour, Les Trois Chênes and in particular Bellerive or CESCO) have been calling me to relieve patients by this therapy. The most dealt cases are : the problems of bad odors, anxiety, stress, loss of appetite, skin problems, colds, flu, muscle and joint problems, end-of-life assistance, the well-being.

Jacques Masraff has never ceased for more than 20 years to explore all facets of wellness. From the creation of wonderful fragrances to the daily use of essential oils, he lives surrounded by woody, flowery, fruity, spicy and amber fragrances. As a true alchemist, he marries, concocts, looking up to what the formula in preparation corresponds most perfectly to the person to whom it is intended. A valuable and necessary know-how to create custom scents for the pleasure and the well-being. For over 15 years, he is under a consultant contract as “perfumer” with the Geneva University Hospital to relieve pain, both physical and mental, and purify rooms. You can find more information at:
